

Deadline extended to 13 June 2011 !!

Seventh Workshop on Baltic Sea Ice Climate August 08–11, 2011

Marine Systems Institute
at Tallinn University of Technology,
Tallinn Estonia

Second Announcement

Introduction

Many aspects and characteristics of ice cover, not only of the Baltic ice but also of lakes in the Baltic Sea drainage basin, have been discussed in the Baltic Sea Ice Climate Workshops. Scientists from Estonia, Finland, Sweden, Poland, Germany, Norway, Japan, China, and many other countries have taken part in the previous Workshops. Research results of ice dynamics, modelling, structure and other physical characteristics, biology, interaction with other environments, and climatological ice time series have been presented in these workshops. These topics will be continued in the coming seventh workshop.

International Seventh Workshop on Baltic Sea Ice Climate will be held in August 08–11, 2011 in Marine Systems Institute at Tallinn University of Technology. The workshop is a continuation of meetings held every third year around the Baltic Sea. The First Workshop on Baltic Sea Ice climate was held in Finland in August 1993, the second in Estonia 1996, the third in Poland in 1999, the fourth in Sweden in 2002, the fifth in Germany in 2005, and the sixth in Finland in 2008.

Scientific Program

The workshop will be divided into sessions with particular emphasis on the topics listed below. Scientists from the Baltic Sea region and as well from other regional seas, seasonally covered by sea ice, are hereby kindly invited to participate in the Seventh Workshop on Baltic Sea Ice.

Topics:

- Climatological ice time series and models;
- Sea ice dynamics: models, engineering, ice breaking, accidents, human life;
- Structure and ecology of ice and under the ice: freezing, melting, transmittance, living;
- Ice – land, ice – ocean and ice – atmosphere interaction.

Workshop site

The workshop will be held in Marine Systems Institute at Tallinn University of Technology (<http://www.msi.ttu.ee>), Akadeemia tee 15a, 12618 Tallinn, Estonia. The accommodation nearby in the Academic hostel (<http://www.ttu.ee/academichostel-eng>) will be 21 EUR (including breakfast). It is a hostel, where a little kitchen, vestibule and shower are for two bedrooms. By booking rooms in this hostel please denote “Baltic Ice Workshop”. Of course, there are many other hostels and hotels in Tallinn, but they are mostly in the City Centre – about twenty minutes by trolley bus.

Participation fee: 70 EUR will cover IBP, Naissaar tour and Old Town Tour.

Please pay participation fee to the account of Tallinn University of Technology

Call for Papers

There is a possibility to publish a selection of publications in Estonian Journal of Earth Sciences (<http://www.kirj.ee/10399>). A full text of the paper (if you need the publication) is waited in the October 2011.

Contributions, both oral and poster, related to the scientific program as outlined above are welcome. Please fill the registration form displayed below and attached to the mail as a word file.

Deadline: 13 June, 2011.

The final programme will be after 13 of June.

Please distribute this information freely to your colleagues.

With the best regards,
Yours Ants Erm
